The image shows an outdoor wedding venue. In the foreground, there are several long tables covered with white tablecloths, set with gold-rimmed plates, white napkins, and glassware. Gold Chiavari chairs are arranged around the tables. A large, lush floral arrangement with pink and white flowers and greenery is positioned on the left. In the background, a stone archway is decorated with flowers and leads to a view of the ocean. The scene is bright and airy, with a soft, slightly faded aesthetic. The text "The Venues" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font in the center.
